

SUBSTRATE ISOLATION DESIGN

Abstract

A substrate isolation design includes a P substrate, a P well positioned on the P substrate, at least a device positioned in the P well, and at least a P substrate guard ring surrounding the device. A P+ guard ring, an N well guard ring, or a deep N well guard ring can be selectively interposed between the P substrate guard ring and the device to facilitate blocking substrate coupling effect.